

SOLUTION

As a result, the project boasts an appealing and stylized design with visual cues following a strict monochromatic theme, with color accents for differentiation between managers and employees. Input and output of answers were implemented using a combination of stylized sliders, while external tools were utilized to handle the generation of multiple answers.

Project: Educate Online