

CHALLENGES

Several key challenges were encountered during the development:

1. The project needed to be multilingual, with the capability to scale to an unlimited number of languages.
2. The project required mathematical processing of a large number of responses to the same question, which was not natively supported by Bubble, the platform used for development.
3. Implementation of user interface elements for test-taking and displaying results.

Project: Educate Online

